We once had rivalries, studies, and a carefree life of fun.

Then time whispered silently by and as we think and now look back,

All we have left is memories.

Memories are all we have left to share of the days that are no more,
For the thoughts of friends and good times shall never perish from the realms of our minds.

Now that it is over, We must remember the past,
But look to the future.

For the future is now; and the past was then.

STUDENT LIFE

Far Right: Marci Wells consoles a thirsty little girl.
 Upper Right: Ron Hildreth awaits the next dunker.
 Upper Middle: Debbie Bafford tells how delicious the hot fudge sundaes are.
 Right: Loa Johnson and Justin Smith smile after being crowned Carnival King and Queen for 1974-75.
 Top: Lorraine Brooks and Erika Binggeli decide which color ballon to buy.

Carnival Spurs Competition

The Carnival spurred lots of competition between classes, clubs, and booths. Sponsored by the student council, its purpose was to give clubs and classes a chance to earn money. The Juniors turned out to be the biggest money earners. The Seniors, however, won the King and Queen competition, thus placing Loa Johnson and Justin Smith on the thrown as the new Carnival King and Queen. The Carnival supplied lots of fun for both those who attended and those who worked in it.

Homecoming Altered By Rain

Upper Far Left: Kathy Fenwick calls for more flowers while Anne Cabbage keeps busy tying them on.

Trick Or Treat Sets Theme

Homecoming 74-75 was altered by the rain that persisted all week long. Floats were built in barns or garages. The band couldn't march at halftime and the Queen candidates had to walk onto the field on a path of boards. But this by no means affected Homecoming. The theme was "Trick or Treat," a funny coincidence, seeing as Homecoming fell on Halloween. The week was highlighted by a pumpkin carving contest and a dress-up day in which students could wear costumes to school. The Homecoming Queen, who was Virginia Garcia, was announced and crowned at the game. The King, Willie Gutierrez, was crowned later at the dance. The turnout at the dance was extremely good at which many alumni showed up. Everyone enjoyed the dance as the band, "Revolution" played.

Homecoming Night Sparks Excitement

Hard Work Goes Into Homecoming

Many hours of hard work went into Homecoming and its activities. Each class worked hard to create a float that represented the "Trick" or "Treat" theme. They all came up with an exceptional float but the Freshmen won out. They received first place while the Seniors got second. The Sophomores took third place and the Juniors received fourth. Dress-up day was a big success. Many students took the chance to dress in costumes rather than normal school dress. They all had fun and enjoyed themselves.

The 1974 Christmas Formal

Far Bottom Right: Liz Espinoza struggles with the glue while Menina Pecina decides what else needs to be done.

Bottom Middle: Tracy Thomas and Cindy Holly, in their Christmas smiles are caught by surprise while Dan Pickering stops for 40 winks.

It May Not Have Been a White Christmas . . . But It Left Good Memories

There was a sensational turnout for the 1974 Christmas Formal. Over 200 people attended, decked in their semi-formal and formal outfits and allready to have a good time. They danced to the music of the "Chicanos" for the evening. Refreshments, such as punch and cookies along the corners for those dancers who danced their cares away, but also ended up with sore feet!!! The Spanish and GAA clubs did a great job of decorating, especially trimming a ten and a half foot tree which was set up in the middle of the gym. There was also a snow scene in the back corner to complete, at least in mind, a white Christmas in Arizona. Everyone seemed to enjoy themselves. Let's hope for an even bigger and better formal for next year.

Sweetheart Dance Goes Over Big

74-75 Sweetheart and Bechelor: Joyce
Mingus and Guy Jacobs

The Sweetheart Dance turned out to be a big success. The Bachelor and Sweetheart were both crowned at the dance. The candidates were (L to R): Karen Esposito, Linda Holly, Joyce Mingus, Guy Jacobs, Jeff McKenzie, Tim Wacker, and Rod Forgia.

On the day of the dance, which happened to be Valentine's Day, the Sweetheart candidates had to catch pigs while the Bachelor candidates had to fry some eggs. The pig chasing proved to be more entertaining. Left: Joyce Mingus brings her catch to members of the FFA. Above: Linda Holly tries to get a hold on one of the pigs.

On November 9, "Come Blow Your Horn", written by Neil Simon, was presented by the Drama Club. It was a comedy about the Baker's and their two sons. Buddy, portrayed by Keith Woolgar and Allen, portrayed by Steve Kalas are both fed up with their demanding father and nosy mother. Allen has already moved out and Buddy decides to move in with Allen. He makes himself at home and decides he likes his independence. Buddy soon takes after Allen's lifestyle, as a swinger, and the confusion was funny enough to merit a repeat performance on November 23.

 Far Right Top: Allen says to Buddy, "What the heck did you put in this drink?"
 Far Bottom Center: "Now honey, you can forget about that trip around the world until you apologize to Buddy!!!"

Seniors Reign in Powder Puff Game

The Powder Puff Football game matched the talents of the Senior girls against those of the Junior girls. Coached by members of the football team, the girls practiced after school all week long in order to prepare for a long, hard fought game. The game remained scoreless for the first three quarters despite desperate tries by both sides. Then, in the fourth quarter, Melissa Ford intercepted a Junior pass and ran the ball for a Senior touchdown. The Seniors won with the final score 6-0. For those times that got boring, the fans had "cheerleaders" to lead them on. They did a terrific job trying to imitate the real cheers and supplied the fans with a lot of laughs.

Students Show Talents

Far Upper Right: Carl and Keith keep the audience amused.

Bottom Left: Sherri Beauchamp, not entering in competition, plays and sings to a song written and composed by herself.

Bottom Middle: Collette Adams sings "I Don't Know How to Love Him".

in 74-75 Blackouts

The Annual Band Blackouts were held on November 22. There was a variety of acts, ranging from singing to telling jokes. The band performed before and after the show while Keith Woolgar and Carl Koutnik entertained between the acts.

The first place winner this year was the "Trouble" act, performed by the J.V. cheers, along with Debbie McCarty, Valerie Weiler, Stasy Simmons, and Debbie Bafford. The second place winning act was for the dancing routine "Kung Fu Fighters" done by Carla Shelton, Lisa and Lori Verdugo and Frances Cota. The third place prize went to Collette Adams and her "Inertia" trio. Collette sang "I don't know how to love him" taken from "Jesus Christ Superstar."

Students Enjoy Free Time

Life, for the average teenager, doesn't just end after 8th period everyday. Many "free" hours are spent at home studying working, or just plain having fun. The local pizza parlor (the VI) turned out to be one of the favorite places to go after games. Many people came to talk, eat, or plan other activities. Among these activities is the sport of TPing. This turned into one of the favorite ways to show your "friendship" towards one another. Many people spent their free time riding horses or dirt bikes. Others would go ice skating or pursue a specific hobby they happen to like. Sometimes they even got together to play football at the college. The State Fair always presented fun along with movies, pro basketball or hockey, or just going to the tramps. There was always somehow a student could use his spare time and everybody found some way of enjoying it.

74-75 Historic Year

Many important events have made 74-75 a very historic year. These happenings have effected us in all areas of our life; entertainment, politics, world events, and sports.

IN POLITICS:

There were quite a few important events that took place on the political front. On August 9, 1974, Richard M. Nixon resigned from the office of the Presidency of the United States of America. He ended his career as the 37th President after resigning due to great pressure put upon him by political opponents and Watergate. On the same day, at 12:03 p.m., Gerald Ford became the next President. He nominated Nelson Rockefeller as his Vice President and together, Ford and Rockefeller became the first Presidential team not elected by the voters.

Ford's first important decision as president was his decision to pardon Nixon from any involvement that Nixon might have had in Watergate. He then implemented his amnesty program on September 16. Draft evaders now could work for their pardon instead of facing a jail term or dishonorable discharge.

Congress, stimulated by the number of new members, started to question the seniority system. The Vietnam-Cambodia question also came up again in Congress. In February, President Ford said that Cambodia would fall unless given more aid. Congress then sent a committee to South Vietnam and Cambodia to investigate and report on what they found. The majority agreed that more aid was needed and that the present aid should be continued.

The powerful head of the House Ways and Means Committee, Wilbur Mills, lost his position due to his involvement with Fanny Fox, an exotic dancer. It was said that he was trying to promote her talents as an entertainer.

Supreme Court Justice Earl Warren died July 9, 1974.

IN ECONOMICS:

The economy was hit with the combination of a recession and inflation. The recession caused widespread unemployment which put over 8% of the work force out of work. It was predicted that unemployment could go as high as 10%.

Food prices rose drastically in the past year. This was mainly due to the high cost of animal feed and fertilizer, inflation, and shortages. Sugar prices skyrocketed in early 1975. This caused some people to start hoarding this commodity.

Energy was also a problem again this year. Although there were no gas lines, much emphasis was put on energy self-sufficiency. Ford came up with a plan that would raise the import tax on the oil coming into this country. In this way, he said, we would be forced to use less oil because of its price, therefore becoming self-sufficient. Congress came back with its own plan.

In order to find solutions to our economic woes, many plans were put into effect to help stimulate the economy. A U.S. citizen was allowed to own gold for the first time in 40 years. This meant that the government would sell gold for the first time since the Great Depression.

The Auto makers came up with their own idea about how to sell more cars. They offered rebates of up to $500 on a new car. This worked well for the dealers but the sales still were not back to normal.

A question aroused over Arab investments in U.S. firms. Some people said it would help the economy to allow the Arabs to invest their oil billions in American stock. Others stated it would only give the Arabs more control over U.S. foreign policies.

IN THE NATION AND THE WORLD:

Archbishop Makarios, President of Cyprus, was ousted by Greek Cypriots on July 17, 1974. Negotiations between Makarios and the Greek Cypriots were started immediately after the coup but soon broke down. On July 20, Turkey invaded Cyprus to "protect the Turkish minority." In February of '75, the Turkish sector declared itself a free and independent state.

Terrorism was still prevalent. The IRA was still active as was the PLO. The Weathermen of the '60's also reappeared. Kidnappings, bombings, and murders were almost common happenings.

The OPEC countries started a black list which had the names of companies that did business with Israel. The idea was to stop giving oil to these firms until they stopped doing business with Israel.

A famine and food shortage hit both India and Africa. Millions died from starvation and thirst.

On the national front, bussing in Boston was a big controversy. Race riots started in many schools, and some schools even had to be shut down.

The conviction of Calley was overturned. Calley was the only person prosecuted and convicted for the My Lai incident of 1968.

Traffic deaths dropped due to the new 55 m.p.h. speed limit.

Mrs. Martin Luther King Sr. was shot and killed on June 30 while attending church services.

Patty Hearst where are you?

Evil Knevil failed to jump the Snake River Canyon. His rocket-cycle couldn't make it across the canyon. It crashed in the river but Knevil was not hurt.

In Peoria, the high school bond issue failed again. Next year's freshmen are going to be on double sessions.

IN ENTERTAINMENT AND SPORTS:

The movie business made a come back in 74-75. Business boomed with the newest type of movie, the disaster movie. Earthquake, The Towering Inferno, The Poseidon Adventure, and Airport 75 were just a few of them.

"The Way We Were" won the song of the year award. "The Sting" received the award for best picture.

Many great entertainers passed away. The most famous was Jack Benny. Others included Walter Brennan, "Mama" Cass Elliot, Joe Flynn of "McHale's Navy" fame, Agnes Moorehead of "Bewitched", Ed Sullivan the famous MC, and Frank Sutton, alias Sgt. Carter from the "Gomer Pyle" show. Jacqueline Susann the author of THE VALLEY OF THE DOLLS and etiquette expert Ami Vanderbilt also died.

In sports, the NFL players went on strike. The strike ended when the regular football season started.

The Steelers beat the Vikings in the Superbowl. The A's beat the Dodgers in the World Series.

Famous baseball player and announcer "Dizzy" Dean died on July 17.

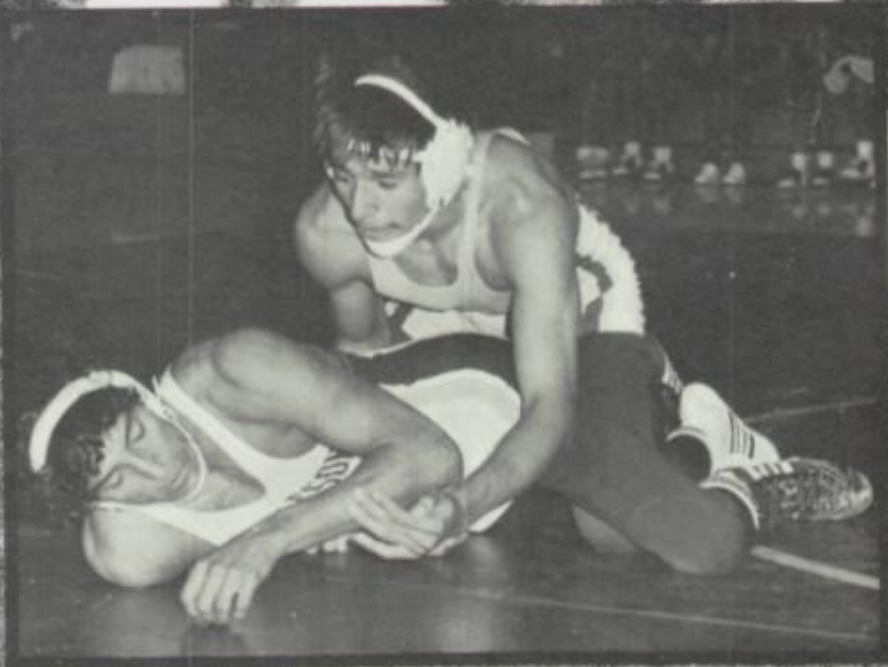

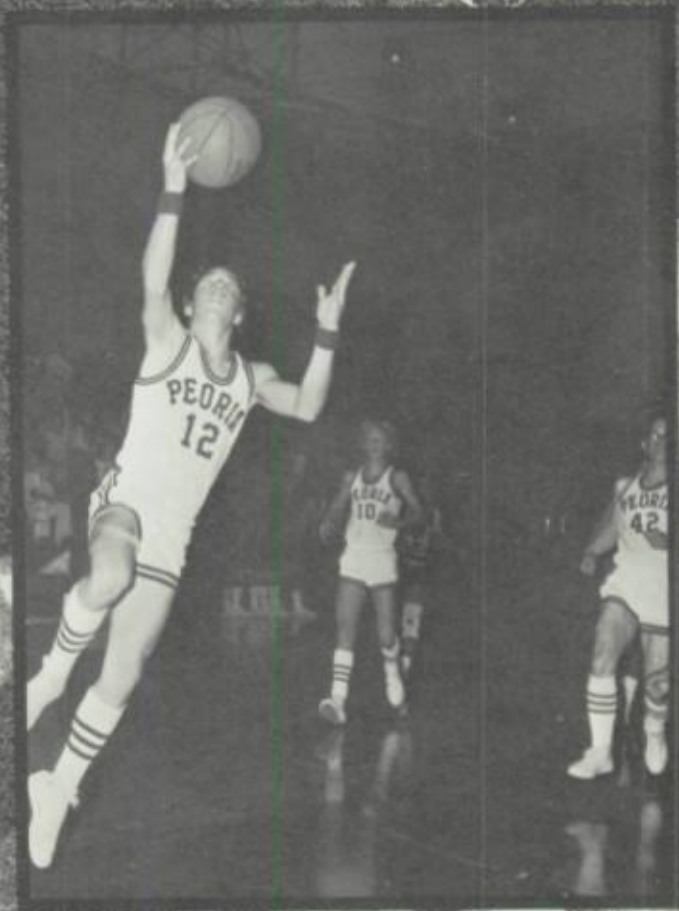

Hank Aaron pulled off the impossible in baseball this year. He broke Babe Ruth's life-time home-run record.

Pickering, J. Barnhart, W. Gutierrez

Triple A style football presented a whole new kind of game for PHS gridmen. It's a tougher more aggressive league, with alot of good teams. Despite all this, Peoria made a pretty impressive showing, ending the season with a 5 and 5 record. That is not bad for a first year triple A team. The St. Mary's game turned out to be a disappointing but exciting game. Peoria lost by only three points (8-11); the closest game St. Mary's had all season. Peoria was winning the game clear up until the fourth quarter.

The Sunnyslope game also proved to be a good close battle. Peoria won the game with a 14 to 13 victory. The Apollo Hawks gave us a game to remember. Peoria won but that wasn't the interesting part of the night. A fight broke out during the fourth quarter which delayed play for about ten minutes. Everything turned out alright with no hard feelings towards each other. On the whole the season went well and Peoria fans enjoyed themselves.

JV Take First in Skyline

J.V. had a great season taking first in the Skyline division of AAA. This was their first year of AAA competition, and they couldn't have done better; winning eight and losing only one. They beat the tough squads of Glendale, St. Mary's and Brophy. Before the season began, the team set two goals; one was to go undefeated and the other was to take first place. Sunnyslope spoiled their first plans for a perfect season in a tough defensive battle. The season was highlighted by a nighttime victory 28-22 over St. Mary's, one of the top ranking schools in the state. Coaches Gonzalo and DeSeelhorst did a great job in leading the team. We can look forward to an even better Varsity team next year.

Frosh Put up Fight

On the whole it was an unhappy season for the frosh gridmen. There were two teams, the A team was for frosh over 120 lbs. while the B team was for those under 120 lbs. The reason for two teams was that there were too many frosh turn outs to put successfully on one team. The two teams were designed to give everyone a chance to play. Although they put up a great effort it would seem they just could not get it together. The A's had a 3-4-1 season while the B's went 0-6. Coaches Hildreth and Gollihare of the B's and Coach Gonzalo of the A's look forward to better luck next year.

Cagers Have Tough Season in AAA

Having a tough season, the Peoria cagers put up a good fight for its first year in triple A. They tried hard and never lost spirit despite the disappointing losses. The season was highlighted when the cagers defeated the Tolleson team twice, and beat Cortez the second time around. They also defeated Aqua Fria in a very well played game. The opening Carl Hayden game also proved to be a good one, despite defeat. The game wound up in a tie and had to go into overtime, where Carl Hayden managed to outscore the Panthers. The games always provided interesting and supplied the fans with many a thrill.

Cagers Build up Steam

Coach Arney had his problems this year. He had to contend with a new type of game and game strategy. He put together different game plans in order to grasp the type of game that would work out to produce wins. Some of these plans worked, others did not. But this did not stop him or his Cagers. They kept on trying and never lost spirit or stamina.

JV Fair Well

The JV, coached by Mr. Gollihare, faired well this season. They had a winning record, beating Glendale, Brophy, and Prescott along with many other teams. They tried hard and got the wins to pull their season through. They had a well rounded game plan always aiming at the fast break whenever possible. All the Cagers did a fine job and practiced long and hard in order to win. They never lost their spirit or confidence.

Freshmen Teams Demonstrate Good Teamwork

The jump to Triple-A had its effects on both Freshman Basketball teams. However, the team spirits were always high, and the players showed tremendous improvement as the season progressed. Frosh A coach, Mr. Maas, and Frosh B coach, Mr. Ackerman, both did a fantastic job at coaching. With this year's experience, next year's J.V. team should do very well.

Grapplers Wrestle Well

Bobby Gonzalo's Grapplers had a very good year ending with a 6 and 3 season. They won most of their duel matches beating such school as Apollo, T-Bird, Moon Valey, and Glendale. They took fourth in the Skyline division and had 6 men go to state. The Grapplers also hosted the Peoria Invitational which involved wrestling between 42 different schools. All in all, they wrestled well and showed what Peoria can really do.

JV and Frosh Fight Hard

The JV and Freshmen Grapplers wrestled well but really couldn't put it all together. The JV were effected by a rash of Varsity injuries which called for several JV wrestlers to be moved up. This lessened their team strength. The Freshmen worked long and hard and never lost their zeal or incentive.

Tennis Teams Swing Into Action

The tennis team, coached by Mr. Robert White, practiced long and hard in order to meet the competition in AAA. Four varsity players from last years state A championship team, returned this year. The J.V. squad started the season with completely new players who endeavored to improve their game and make next years varsity.

Cross-Country Team Has Good Season

The Cross-Country team had a new coach this year, Mr. Leroy Black, the elementary school woodshop teacher. He led the P.H.S. Harriers to a rather successful season despite the jump to Triple-A. All home meets were held at Thunderbird Park where several meet records were broken. Team captains were Victor Reynoso, Phillip Navarro and Ray Salcido. Other team members included Ray Vega, Ernest Hermosillo, Mike Cox, Fernando Reyna, Joe Murillo, Tony Rodriguez and Mike Halchak.

Ms. Badminton . . . "That's Our Racket!!!"

The 1975 Girl's Badminton team did a fantastic job!!! They went undefeated all season long and really "socked it to 'em" in the State Tournament. Vickie Lyall and Nancy Beck took 2nd place in doubles at State and Cecilia Acosta was in singles competition. We're proud to say this team belongs to Peoria.

Girl's Volleyball Team Swings Into "Power"

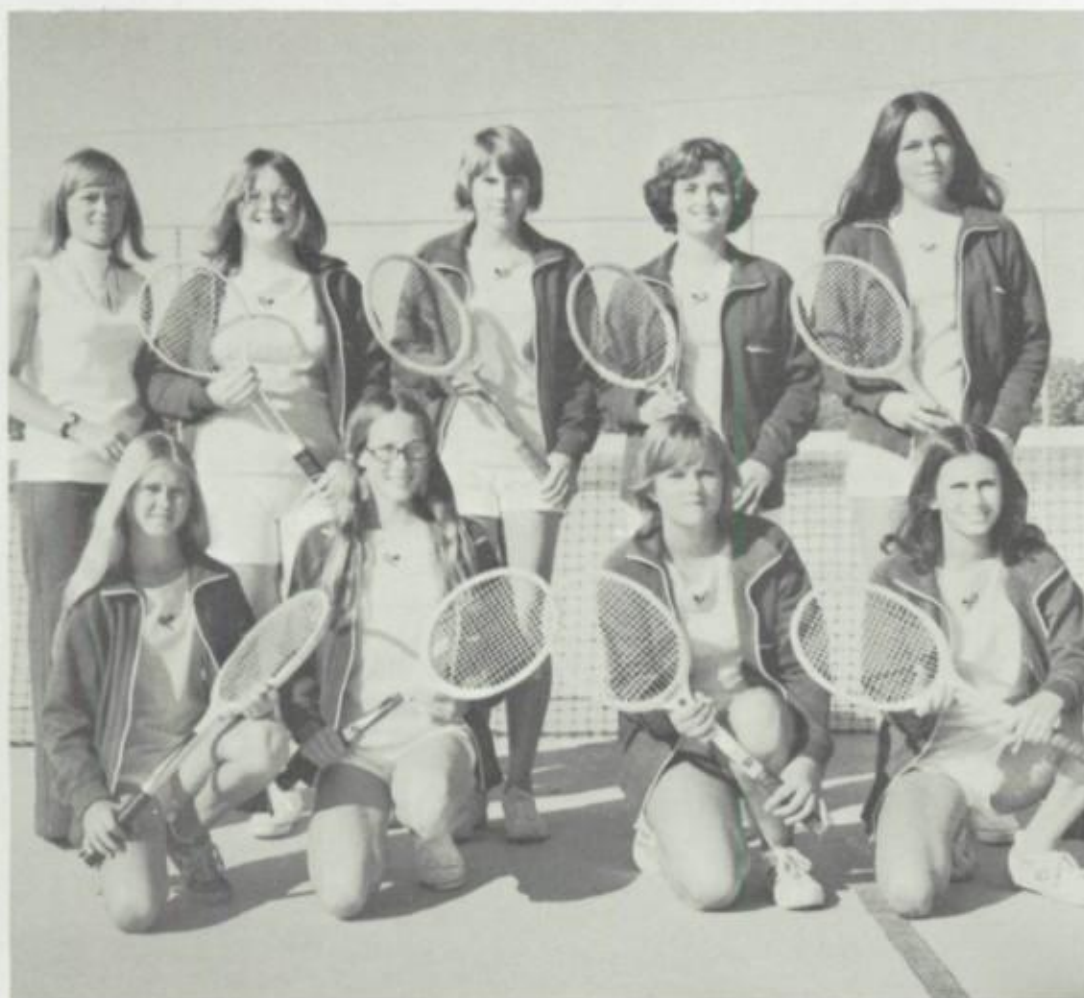

This year Peoria had it's first Volleyball team. It was a double effort for both the Varsity and the J.V. girl's because it was their first year as a team and their first year in AAA. the J.V. had a 5-5 record and seem to have a promising future. Their scores were very close when they lost. The Varsity team was composed of mostly freshman and will be a different type of player next season (with more practice and experience). Their coach, Mrs. Moman says "All the players have developed good skills in their bumps, sets, and spikes."

Frosh Tennis Teams Have What It Takes- Stamina

Our Freshman Boys Tennis Team is building a name for itself and for the Class of '78. They ended their first season in AAA with a 6-4 overall record. Coach White says he is very proud of the boys. He says that their team effort was tremendous.

The Freshman Girls had an exciting season for their first year in AAA standing. They learned to share their new knowledge of tennis and helped each other when needed. The girls worked well together and there was much improvement throughout the season. Mrs. Uthe, their coach, felt they did a fine job!

HONORS

Coach Ray Mitokawa retired from coaching this year after having coached P.H.S. football teams for over 20 years. He entered this '74-'75 season with the honor of knowing he was the second longest active coach in Arizona. Also, he had over 100 wins in his career and had the pleasure of being the coach with the second most wins in the state. He graduated from Glendale High School where he played on the state's championship football team of that year. He attended the U of A where he played guard until "Uncle Sam" called him to serve his country during WW II. He then returned to the U of A where he received his teaching credentials. He came to Peoria in 1954 and was made head coach in 1955. He now plans to work at his administrative position as Vice Principal.

Model U.N. delegates, sponsored by Ms. Cameron, traveled to Tucson to attend the 1975 session of the Arizona Model United Nations. They represented the small west coast African country Guinea. Attending planned assemblies, they discussed world problems and possible solutions with other delegations from different parts of Arizona. After researching Guinea's culture and government, they represented the country in what they believed was a realistic manner.

Boy's and Girl's Staters Learn the Principles of Our Government

Being chosen to attend Arizona Boy's or Girl's State is not your everyday occurrence.

Girl's State is sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary. Anne Cubbage and Carla Van Meter (with Lorri Jean acting as an alternate) represented Peoria by attending the 27th session of Girl's State held at U of A. Both girls participated in governmental and political duties. They thought that it was a fantastic experience and said "It was ALRIGHT." They would like to be chosen as counselors for the 28th session.

Arizona Boy's State, held at N.A.U., is sponsored by the American Legion. The three boys chosen to represent P.H.S. were Steven Kalas, Carl Koutnik and Stan Yamamoto. These boys were chosen by their scholastic, athletic and leadership abilities. The boys ran a mock government and learned how our government was run. Each boy agreed that it was a worthwhile, learning experience.

Anytown Promotes Universal Brotherhood

"Anytown was the best week of my life. I met some really dynamite people who I'll never forget." This is how Loa Johnson feel about Anytown. Every summer, four students from each school go to Anytown, U.S.A. to learn about their fellowman. To go, students apply, are interviewed and then voted on by ex-anytowners. Enthusiam, leadership and willingness are the qualifications.

Peoria's representatives were Sara Woodard and Loa Johnson (Bottom Left) and Robert Guyton (Bottom Right). They attended Sky-Y camp in Prescott. Group discussions, guest speakers and topics such as Racalism, Psyche Inner Mind and Folksinging were included. During free time they took nature walks and got closer to fellow students. The last night, everyone "passed the candle", each saying what was on his mind. Every student who went to Anytown came away with the feeling that they were going to change the world. Top Right: Sara Woodard, Robert Guyton, and Loa Johnson.

Four Years of Hard Work Pay Off

Four years of hard work paid off for both Anne Cabbage and Colleen Glendon. Lorri Jean also proved her scholastic abilities by receiving the honor of being salutatorian. Colleen presently attends NAU. She is majoring in math and is attending NAU on a scholarship she received during the first semester of this year. Anne Cabbage is planning on attending U of A. She wants to major in math and P.E. with hopes of one day teaching. Lorri Jean is going to attend ASU. She wants to study law and enter into politics.

ORGANIZATIONS

Varsity Cheers Lead Letterman

Varsity Cheers Keep Active

The Varsity Cheer squad kept active in Peoria's first year as a AAA school. They showed their tremendous spirit and support for the Varsity Lettermen by holding some of the best pep assemblies ever and two night rallies at which they burned the Cardinal and Owl. At the last night rally, the football players joined the cheers in doing some routines such as "You bit off more than you can chew."

Mascots Add Some Humor

The Panther Mascots, who are Yolanda, Olibarria, Patti Fowler, and Ginny Craig (the JV mascot) add enthusiasm and humor to the games. They helped the cheers by trying to get the people at the games to cheer. They also did a lot of goofing off to add some spark to the sideline "show".

The JV Cheers did a tremendous job cheering the JV teams on. They had a lot of spirit which was shown by the willingness they displayed when asked by the spectators to do certain cheers. They presented the team members with gifts throughout the year at pep assemblies. They also helped the poms in their Christmas skit.

Band and Twirlers Come

The Peoria Varsity Band is one of the most active and spirited groups on campus. They have performed at various school activities such as pep assemblies, the Homecoming parade and the football and basketball games. They practice early in the mornings to put together a fantastic half-time show. The band also sponsored the annual "Band Blackouts" which was a great success. They also performed at the A.S.U. Band Day with the twirlers. After all this hard work, they planned their annual trip to California and Disneyland.

To wind up the busy year, they played for the high school graduation. Yes, this is one of the most active and spirited groups around!!!

Twirlers Shine With the Times

The P.H.S. Twirlers provided a colorful and entertaining half-time performance at the games. They used regular, hoop and fire batons to make their performances really eye-catching. They showed originality and talent in all of their performances. At the A.S.U. Band Day, they twirled their way to a superior rating. This year's twirler's were really FANTASTIC!

to the P.S.H. Choir

It was a cheerful year for the P.H.S. Choir. During Christmas, they sang songs at Metro and other shopping centers. They also sang at Sun City for their Breakfast Club meetings. The choir had a school assembly, which was terrific. They participated in a Fine Arts Festival in the spring, and the choir presented a musical show. For more excitement at the end of the year, they made enough money selling their delicious candy to go on a trip.

Publications Further Efforts to Improve

The Publication Staffs consists of three different staffs; the Newspaper Staff, the Annual Staff, and the Photography Staff. The Newspaper Staff worked hard to bring to the students a much improved Panther Prowler. Many hours went into writing and editing the stories, all of which were informative, interesting, or funny. They sent two staffers to Publication's Workshop this past summer where they learned the "how to's" about newspaper. Three Annual staffers went also. They spent ten days in Flagstaff learning everything they could about good yearbooking. The Annual Staff produced, what we consider, an up to date yearbook. They worked hard, spending many hours of their free time in order to make this yearbook the best. They stressed originality and special effects in order to give the book more appeal. The Photography Staff did an equally important job. They supplied all the staffs with the pictures they needed. They, too, give up their spare time to take pictures at games and dances. They put a special effort into taking color pictures for the opening section of this book. All in all, the Publication staffs tried hard to improve all of Peoria High's publications.

It is often said that Student Council does not do much around campus. This is not the case. Student council sponsors most of the school activities. They start the school year with Freshmen Initiation. Then they keep on truckin with the Carnival and Homecoming. They also put on many dances throughout the year. They end each year by running Field Day. These are just a few of the things Student Council does for you. They also help the community by giving Christmas boxes to the needy. As for international projects, Peoria High School Student Council sponsors a foster child that lives in South America. All in all, Student Council proves it does a lot around campus for you and the community.

Interactors for 1974-75 were: 1st Row: F. Kircher-President, L. Lopez, J. Collins, L. Lopez, W. Gutierrez; 2nd Row: G. Mackey, T. Thomas, C. Holly, C. Hoopes, R. Walker, C. Glendon, R. Corral, K. Interactors found many ways of getting involved this year starting with the initiation of new members to the completion of the Beautification project (the area completed between the old and new buildings.) To begin the year, they worked in one of the many "Ring Toss" booths at the P.H.S. Carnival. On October 11, the Interactors hosted three of six Japanese students touring the United States. Peoria was one of five schools chosen in the U.S. to host these students. On October 19, fifteen new members were initiated. They were awakened at 5:30 a.m. and taken to a "Come as you sleep" breakfast. They managed to survive the embarrassment of being the only ones in their "sleepers" at Hobo Joes. On November 2, Interact sponsored District 549's first District conference. Ideas for service and money projects were discussed. Various speakers talked of the purposes of Interact. Other activities such as mistletoe picking, selling cushions and concessionairing helped finance the Beautification project. Activities such as these kept Interact Moving!!!

They also learned the fundamentals of aerodynamic engineering by building model airplanes. They held many retreat ceremonies in which ROTC formally lowered the flag at the end of the day. They also carried the flag onto the football field and basketball court at the beginning of each home game so that the fans may honor it.

Productions Involve Work

The Drama Club consists of all the drama classes, both the beginning and the advanced. They have put on productions throughout the year including plays such as "The Dropout", "The Necklace" and "Come Blow Your Horn". "The Necklace" and the "Dropout" were both attempts at a serious play. They both turned out very well. "Come Blow Your Horn" was a comedy that was so funny that it merited another showing. A lot of hard work went into these productions and it proved to be worthwhile after hearing the responses at the end of each play.

Mat Maids Officiate at

This year 15 new girls were initiated into Mat Maids to bring the total to 40 girls. These girls represented PHS throughout football wrestling, and track season. In the fall, they collected tickets and passed out programs at the football games. Once wrestling had begun they learned how to score and time. During track, the girls scored and timed to assist the coaches. At the pep assemblies they presented the wrestlers with cupcakes and Christmas stockings. On January 17 and 18, they co-hosted the Peoria Invitational along with the grapplers. The girls scored and timed for more than 500 grapplers from all across Arizona. They gave the wrestlers "Good Luck" towels and ran the concession stand and hospitality room. The girls had a busy but worthwhile year.

“Peoria High School Hats off to Thee”

Eighty-five girls were active in the Pep Club this year. Besides showing their spirit at the pep assemblies they cheered the Panthers on at the football and basketball games. They showed their spirit through the selling of pennants, buttons and popcorn balls. They also purchased green and white pin-striped T-shirts to wear at the games. Although the club has grown, the spirit hasn't diminished.

Science Club Runs "Zoo"

The Science Club started off the year by running a "zoo" at the Carnival. With the money they earned, they ordered a telescope in order to get a closer look at the vast universe that surrounds us. They also ran most of the concession stands at the basketball games to help earn funds needed for the final payments.

Ride 'em Cowboy

A new club was welcomed to Peoria this year. The Rodeo Club, sponsored by Ms. Abigail Hemingway, set a goal for itself during its first year. One of their goals was to set up an arena, which was the sight of a fun filled rodeo in the spring. Included in the rodeo were such activities as goat roping and barrel racing. Money was raised by having a car wash. This was one of the small ways money was earned to pay for the construction.

ACADEMICS

A Time to Work

A Time to Relax

The Administration works hard to keep the school running smoothly. They also work hard to pass the various school bond issues and to cope with everyday problems.

Counselors Have Hectic But Rewarding Year

This year was the counselors' first year with the use of computer scheduling. With all the new students, it certainly was a great time saver though there was a lot of errors. Of course everyone wasn't too happy with their schedules so several changes had to be made. The counselors try their best to please everyone. The counselors also have to excuse absences now which means more work. They have been a great help to all of us.

Secretaries Work for Benefit of Students

Have you ever noticed that just about everytime you pass by the office, the phone is ringing or the typewriters clicking? Well, those are the sounds of the secretaries hard at work for the benefit of the students. They spend many an hour typing, answering phones, and doing paperwork in order to help keep the school running smoothly.

Bottom Right: "This must be a record number of absences," chuckles Erma Karr, attendance secretary.

Middle Left: "That'll be $55.45, Frank," says Betty Hardy, Book-store secretary.

Communication Through

"There ain't no such word as ain't," at least that's what the English department keeps telling students. Headed by Mrs. Williamson, the department is the largest in the school, adding two new teachers this year. This brought the total to twelve teachers. The objective of the department is to give each student a well rounded background in reading and writing. They achieved this through hours of hard work.

Bottom Right: Mr. Stan Berg emphasizes the importance of imagination in Creative Writing.

Language Department

 Top Right: Mrs. Peggy Hudson can't imagine why she loves teaching so well.

*Charles Best of all that you
 Mrs. S.*

Foreign Phrases Familiar Friends

The Foreign Language Department, headed by Mrs. Cis Sullivan, is leaning more toward individual learning. Each student is geared to work at their own pace. Mrs. Sullivan replied that this is working out very well. She also said that the students seem to be showing much more interest.

Middle Right: "Ooow! Here comes the mushy part!" frowns Ron Price, English and German teacher.

Social Studies Recapture Bygone Days

Several changes took place this year in the Social Studies Department, headed by Mr. White. Ms. Ellen Cameron, teaching Free Enterprise, was added to the staff. Also, History lectures were done away with, making U.S. History a regular full-week class. More extensive changes are in store for next year.

Upper Left: Mrs. Abigail Hemingway and Mr. Bobby Gonzalo occasionally get carried away with past crazes in U.S. History.

Center Left: Teaching Free Enterprise sometimes requires a lot of reading and that's just what Ms. Cameron has to do.

Above: Mr. David Moore, U.S. Government teacher, wonders how a Senior can possibly get thirty tardies in only six weeks.

Left: World Geography students never know what country Mr. Robert White will talk about next.

Sciences Tune Into Everyday Life

The Science Department was action-packed with its usual excitement this year. Among many things, the "Peoria Zoo" returned for the third time along with the occasional squeals and yelps from a few girls while dissecting in Biology class. The department is headed by Mr. Miller.

Math Dept. Puts It All Together

Business Education

The Business Education Department, teaching nearly twice as many students as last year, had two new teachers this year. Mrs. Judy Burgraff and Mrs. Melody Mroski. Also, three new classes were offered: Cooperative Office Education, Business Communications and Consumer Math. The department is headed by Ms. Smith.

Right: Mrs. Judy Burgraff, Typing 1-2 teacher, really loves to smile.

Lower Left: In Consumer Math, Pam Denny is sure that Mr. Bill Gollihare knows the answers. Lower Right: Teaching Typing 5-6 and Shorthand takes alot of patience and Ms. Patricia Smith sure has some.

March Along With R.O.T.C.

Left: Sgt. Robert Colucci plans activities for next week, while Below, Col. Paul Coke discusses flight patterns with Carmen Chavarin. ROTC isn't just a typical class. The cadets go on plane rides and held a military ball, which was a very big success. The cadets also have formal flag retreats, in which the entire corps participated. All in all, ROTC is for kids who want to get involved.

Reading Opens New Doors.

Upper Left: Ms. Ilene Adams stops to help Raul Reynoso with the film projector, while Above Mr. Milton Turner helps Pat Slaughter with the reading machine. This year, the reading program has expanded, as to bring the students to a higher level of reading and comprehension. Many more individual needs are being met.

Audio Visual

Audio Visual is the title of Phil Liggett's job. He repairs and keeps the classroom machinery in working condition. He also delivers machinery to classes and takes care of gathering films. He also finds time to watch over a few study halls. Some students don't realize how important his job is.

Special Ed

Lois Chappel, new to Peoria this year, helps Lee Mitchell to fulfill individuals need in learning. The class is designed to give students the training needed to get a job after graduating.

Right: Lee Mitchell and Lois Chappel look over some reports.

Agriculture

The agriculture classes are designed to teach those interested in farming just how to go about it. They teach students how to solder and the safety methods involved when using a torch. They also built a green house where they raise tomatoes and other vegetables.

Home Ec Can Make Life Easier

Top Right: Joleen Tieman finds time to help in the library.

Books Records & Research

Elda Huling, Left, directs the library. She keeps the books in order, files cards and takes care of overdue books. Most of all, she helps us find the information we need. It's a wonder she has time for lunch.

Career Ed Makes New Discoveries

Bob DeSeelhorst, Left, in addition to teaching Biology, has found his job and can help find yours. He forms clusters of students to get them involved in finding careers that seem interesting. The groups take field trips and talk to people working in these fields. Students learn the steps of getting into a certain field of work.

The Sound of Harmony

A few new changes have been made in the music department. William Maschger has become the District Music Supervisor. He takes care of music making in the high school and all Peoria elementary schools. Another new role for Mr. Maschger is assistant principal of the elementary school. He still takes time to teach the Stage Band which has been made a separate class this year. A couple of teachers are new this year. Robert Weller now teaches the High School Band in the morning and spends his afternoons teaching elementary band students. Joyce Slack teaches Music Theory, Beginning Guitar, and Chorus during the morning. During the afternoons, she teaches music to students at the Murphy School.

Art Teachers Help Students Find Themselves

The Art teachers coach the students with their helpful hints in working with their imagination. Students sometimes find themselves through their creativity and the help of art classes. Many different kinds of art are being taught. The crafts classes put together a gigantic mosaic depicting Arizona for the wall of the cafeteria. It adds color and draws attention. An art show was also held in Spring.

Right: Sharon Hill is nearly always involved in her art work.

New Concepts Devised in Industrial Arts

New ideas were continuously devised in the Industrial Arts Department.

Upper Left: Looking on is Mr. Murr Brown, Architect and Drafting teacher.

Lower Left: Woodwork comes easy to Mr. Rich Ackerman, shop and woodwork teacher.

Upper Right: Teaching vocational autowork is the duty of Mr. Don Losito.

Middle Right: Besides working with small engines, construction and woodshop keep Mr. Antone Berki on the go.

Lower Right: Mr. Lewis Sorci, I.A. Auto, Auto Maintenance and Drafting 1-2 teacher, shows some boys the proper way of working on an engine.

P.E. Dept. Takes on New Dimensions

Involvement was the key word for the "74-75" P.E. teachers.
